Native American Seminar and Ceremonies Workshop

The lock-in at the Innannual Baptist Church was well attended and well executed. There was as huge display of Indian regalia that covered over 5 tables, along with good food, good cracker barrels, and great fellowship. Sandy Rhoades and his able assistance's, Chris Carter , Adam Lovell, and others, worked very hard to provide a quality program. They taught Indian games, songs, dance, how to make Indian Regalia, and many other things. Thanks again to all the volunteers that worked so hard to make this over nighter a success.

Spring Ordeal

Was a great experience for all who attended, especially the candidates. There was lots of work to do at Hale Scout Reservation, and much work was accomplished by the 40 candidates. A great job by the Ordeal Master Matt Treat and the Elangomat Master Adam Koloff.

O. A. Service Weekend

We had a super fantastic time at the O. A. Service Weekend. We repaired tent frames and put up tents, burned brush piles, moved the kayaks to the water front, smoked out rodents on one hillside. The Summer camp kitchen staff was there to clean up the dining hall and prepared excellent food for the brothers. There was great fun at both dinner times, we had drawings for patches and money, there were gold birds given away, two part patches, $5.00 bills, and other fine stuff., NO ONE went away empty handed. Be sure and be there next year for this worthwhile, fun and profitable event. Special thanks to Troop 4 and Troop 89, for showing in force with the whole troop.

Lodge Adviser's Minute

Brothers,

The deadline for nominations for the Golden Arrow, Vigil, and Founder's Award is September 1, 2000. These nomination forms are available at the Scout Service Center and will be at the Summer Ordeal and Fall Fellowship. The Vigil Selection Committee will meet at Camp Garland immediately following the end of the Fall Ordeal on September 17th at approximately 11:00 AM to conduct its business.

Our lodge is currently busy calling out potential new brothers at the Hale Scout Reservation. Anywhere from 70 to 100 scouts are being called out every Thursday night at the new Amphitheater that your lodge is helping to finance. There is a new wooden deck that is really big and in it's center is a fireplace. The audience sits on split log benches made from the trees at the camp. It is really going to be a wonderful addition to summer camp once it is finished. I want to commend those who attended the OA Service Weekend and the Spring Ordeal. All where held at the Hale Scout Reservation and a tremendous amount of Cheerful Service was given to the council. NOAC 2000 is coming up shortly and 47 brothers, 14 adults and 33 youths, will be in attendance. The conference is being held at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. The contingent will be competing in volleyball, ceremonies, Indian dance, and several other events. Please plan to attend the Summer Ordeal at Camp Garland, July 14th through July 16th.

Have A Super Fantastic Summer!!
